Well-known Professionals Added to Community Foundation Board

Fort Myers, FL (July 8, 2010) – The Southwest Florida Community Foundation (SWFLCF) has appointed four community professionals to serve on its Board of Trustees: Mr. Darren Robertshaw, Mr. Sandy Robinson, Ms. Robbie Roepstorff, and Mr. Bob Wigley.

Ms. Roepstorff, current President of Edison National Bank, has served as an Advisory Board representative from SWFLCF's Good Neighbor Community Foundation of Sanibel-Captiva division.

Likewise, Mr. Robertshaw, Vice President of the Hospitality Group for Trianon Hotel Company, has served as an Advisory Board member from the Community Foundation's Bonita Springs Community Foundation division.

Mr. Robinson comes to SWFLCF as current President of the Northern Trust's Fort Myers office and is a resident of Bonita Springs, Florida. He serves on several organizational boards that serve Southwest Florida.

Mr. Wigley is one of the original founders of SWFLCF's Good Neighbor Community Foundation of Sanibel-Captiva division. Having retired from business, he serves on various boards in the community, residing in Sanibel.

The Southwest Florida Community Foundation also gratefully acknowledges the service of its outgoing Trustees: Mr. Guy Emerich, Mr. Jim Nathan, Mr. John Pollock, and Mr. Will Prather. Emerich, Nathan, and Prather will continue to serve SWFLCF as Senior Advisors.

SWFLCF is grateful for the service and dedication of all of these individuals. They are community leaders who have served the people of Southwest Florida for many years, showing and advocating the highest levels of leadership and philanthropic action. We are confident that those years of service will continue to have a lasting impact.

The Southwest Florida Community Foundation has been supporting the communities of Lee, Charlotte, Collier, Glades, and Hendry counties for over 33 years. Through 331 endowed funds, the Community Foundation has provided more than $46 million in grants and scholarships to the communities it serves.
